

THE PHILADELPHIA STRIKE

WAS DECLARED OFF AND THEN SUDDENLY ON AGAIN YESTERDAY.

RIOTING WAS RESUMED WITH VIGOR

It is thought the Traction Officials Have Played Falsely With the Striking Men, and the Gravest Consequences are Feared.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 21.—The strike on the Union Traction lines was declared off by the leaders at 10 o'clock this morning upon a proposition sent to the men by Mayor Warwick, the authority of the traction officials, represented by Thomas Dolan, through Rev. Dr. Baker and George Griffiths, a committee for the Christian league, was a few hours afterwards, when the men reported for duty, declared on again and is tonight apparently as hard and as fast as ever.

There will be a cessation of hostilities tomorrow, as the traction management, after seeking the advice of the directors of public safety, decided tonight not to run any cars on the Sabbath. As a result of the strikers' failure to return to their places there was more rioting today than at any time since the strike began. The men and their sympathizers were very angry, and there were outbreaks of mob violence in at least 20 places, each accompanied by the throwing of bricks and other missiles. Many people were hurt, but none seriously. Scores of cars entered the depots with all glasses broken and the wood work battered up. Towards the afternoon the strikers' violence became quite regular in the morning hours, were generally withdrawn and at nightfall not a car was on the street.

At Fourth and Grand streets this morning railroad torpedoes were placed on the tracks. When the morning of the first of the three Lancaster avenue cars stopped to remove the dangerous obstructions a mob of about 200 people attacked the third car and broke nearly every window and battered the woodwork. The conductor was hit and knocked down by a stone thrown by a boy. Stones were thrown at the other two cars. The cars were finally started under strong police protection with a yelling mob following them.

Torpedoes were exploded on the tracks near Twenty-first and Spring Garden streets. The only effect was to frighten a timid people. A mob of about 200 people, and one woman, handling a broom, hustled through the car. At Twenty-fourth and Chestnut a mob attacked several cars with stones, wrecking all the glass in them.

"Throughout the afternoon the mayor's office was the scene of a constant indignation against President Walsh is universal. The strikers declare that they have been tricked, and now vengeance. Leader Mahon said that they were more determined than ever, and he expressed fear that the night might bring forth sympathy for Mr. Dolan is everywhere expressed, and nobody hesitates to assert that he has been 'thrown down' by President Walsh.

The situation is graver than at any time since the strike began. Mayor Warwick, when asked whether he would order the operation of all cars, replied that the law gave him no authority to do so, as he would be interfering with a common carrier.

UNCLE SAM CHEERED IN LONDON. New York, Dec. 21.—The grain pit of the produce exchange was stirred from top to bottom today by the following telegram, which President H. D. McCord received from the Baltic exchange of London, and read to the crowd of brokers from the rostrum: "At the annual dinner of the Baltic exchange last night 'Yankee Doodle' was received with loud cheers and the health of the United States with three times three." A round cheer greeted the message.

President McCord sent the following reply: "When your cable was read on our exchange it was received with prolonged applause, showing that your good feeling is heartily appreciated. We hope for the continuance."

LIVELY SKIRMISHING. Havana, Dec. 21.—It is reported here that the right wing of the insurgents has surrounded the village of Arabos, 12 miles from Palma. General Valdes and General Gogori have gone to assist the Spanish forces at Arabos. Reports of active destruction of property continue to come in from some of the first plantations along the coast and some of the accounts give details of suffering, pitiable in the extreme. The path of the insurgents is said to be a continuous stretch of desolation. No reliable authority exists for the statement again reiterated that the insurgent leader, General Gomez, has been badly wounded and it is believed here that the rumor to this effect recently circulated throughout America by way of Tampa is untrue.

Yesterday the battalion of General Asturias had a sharp engagement with the forces of General Gomez. The conflict occurred at Santo Domingo, province of Santa Clara, about 40 miles from Tampigua, province of Matanzas, where insurgent forces have recently been concentrating. The artillery attached to the column of General Asturias is reported to have been with telling effect upon the forces of the insurgents, who sustained a considerable loss.

According to official advice the Spanish troops lost five officers, while 14 of the soldiers were wounded and two were killed. The insurgents continued their march in the direction of Palma Sol, Palmillas and La Macana.

A detachment of Spanish troops, while out on a scouting expedition, was surrounded by the Cuban insurgents. The Spaniards made a brave resistance and lost seven killed and five wounded.

MEXICAN SENTIMENT. City of Mexico, Dec. 21.—Mexican public sentiment is now beginning to manifest itself in regard to the attitude assumed by the United States in the Venezuelan case, and newspapers generally take the ground of supporting President Cleveland. It is considered that his message is an echo that the continental sentiment is now growing stronger every year, which has expressed itself in the motto, "America is for our own inhabitants."

One paper declares that England must have the sentiment of the people of the new world—for it is not merely North America, but all the Americas who protest against her iniquitous attempt to seize the soil of Venezuela, imposing her will by the tremendous show of material force against the weaker Nations.

The principle which Cleveland has enunciated will find an echo among all the inhabitants of this hemisphere. The Monroe doctrine is now the doctrine of the entire continent. This is a fair sample of public opinion.

Mexicans still resent what they consider as England's unjust occupation of Belize, which Mexican historians and statesmen have almost invariably held to be Mexican soil. The press here has long opposed the granting of Belize to England in any form, but it has been recognized that she could not be expelled by force, and so the policy of silent protest has been adopted.

OUR LONDON CABLE LETTER. CABINET MINISTERS ENJOYING VACATIONS AND WORRYING LITTLE ABOUT WAR. ARMENIAN QUESTION LOSTSIGHT OF. With the Venezuelan Question to be Settled there is no Prospect of Concerted Action in Turkey—Other Interesting Items.

London, Dec. 21.—(Copyright, 1905, by the Associated Press.)—No excitement has been manifested here in political circles over the Venezuelan complications, although their effects have been felt on the stock exchange. There has been some unloading of American securities, but the cabinet ministers are all enjoying the Christmas holidays in the country, and outside the utterances of the newspapers there is nothing to indicate that war is apprehended. Of course, the strained relations between Great Britain and the United States have been uppermost in the public minds, especially during the latter part of the week, and the matter, which was at first treated lightly, is now more deeply discussed and there are indications that the gravity of the affair is now fully grasped by the people at large. A striking fact is that without a single exception, if the utterances of the press and those of the representative men who have spoken on the subject can be relied upon, the whole country stand behind president Cleveland. In addition to the financial disorder, which has been the first feature of the trouble, there is one phase of the reception of the war scare here which deserves special attention, and that is the attitude of the British food imports commission. The alarming reports circulated have been seized upon by the agricultural party as a justification for the demands which they have recently made on the government for a change in the policy of Great Britain from free trade to protection.

Mr. James Lowther, M. P., leader of the Protection party, indicates this in a pointed letter printed in the Times, and showing the grave condition in which Great Britain would be if her food supplies from America were stopped.

Mr. Lowther points out that 50 per cent of the British food imports comes from the United States, and he therefore asks that British agriculture be protected in order to make this country as independent as possible of American food supplies.

Years ago expressed that the war scare will materially assist the agitation for protection against American food imports, although the Statist today gives utterance to a grave warning to the public not to be frightened into supporting import duties upon wheat. In spite of such warning, there is little doubt that the agitation here in favor of protection will be further strengthened by bellicose utterances on both sides of the Atlantic, and with a strong Conservative government in office it is thought some measure for protection and fostering of British husbandry is not unlikely to be introduced shortly and to become a law in the due course of time.

General Lawrie, formerly a member of the Canadian house of commons, said: "There is a serious risk of certain hot heads on the frontier attacking what they cordially hate—the British flag. So far as Canada is concerned, the chief danger lies in a small party of those jingoists crossing the frontier in a moment of excitement and insulting the flag in a way to at once call for reprisals."

With the Venezuelan question on the tapis there is no prospect of any concerted action in America at present.

A Constantinople correspondent, who has been unusually well informed throughout the crisis, writes regarding the sultan's triumph, and at the difficulty Great Britain is placed in, and says that England nor any of the powers has yet done anything to save the 400,000 Armenians who are now facing the alternative of starvation or conversion to Mohammedanism. The sultan, the correspondent continues, is confident and exulting, and has never before been seen in such spirits. He impresses his visitors as being more clear-headed and logical in conversation than usual and more determined than ever to carry out his own plans. In fact, it is said that the sultan is ten times stronger than he was six months ago, and that he no longer fears the Turkish revolutionists, much less the powers.

The speaker, commenting upon the subject, says: President Cleveland has done badly for the Christians of Armenia and exceedingly well for the murderers of the Yildiz Kiosk.

The Duke and Duchess of Marlborough are stopping at the Grand Hotel, Monte Carlo. They will soon proceed to Italy.

A newspaper correspondent, referring to their visit to the Casino, says that both the duke and duchess staked five francs there and lost. Apparently satisfied that they were not in good luck, the young couple did not venture upon any further gambling.

Mrs. John Farris of Philadelphia, a relative of President Monroe, is to be married on Monday at the Catholic church of the Assumption, this city, to E. J. Bralton, ex-secretary of the Paris legation. Mr. Thos. F. Bayard, the United States ambassador, is to give the bride away, and many prominent Americans will be present at the ceremony.

The Prince and Princess of Wales and the princesses will leave today for Sandringham, where Christmas festivities on a large scale will be in order next week. The Prince of Wales, by the way, has always taken a keen interest in billiards, and while visiting the Earl and Countess of Carnarvon on Wednesday last, Eugene Carter, the American billiard player, who has been giving brilliant exhibitions of his skill at Egyptian Hall here for some time past, easily defeating the English champions, was summoned to High Cler. There in the billiard room of the castle a Carter's clever strokes delighted those present and earned for the expert billiardist the warm praise of the Prince.

An anonymous donor has again sent 11,000 six-pence, amounting to $1375, to be distributed among the workhouse children.

The queen is at Osborne, where Christmas day will be celebrated with customary splendor. The queen is especially thoughtful and liberal to all these events on these occasions, and always has a gorgeous Christmas tree, in the decoration of which she is greatly interested. Every servant and member of her majesty's household receives some present, and most of these are decided upon by the queen herself. The servants also have a splendid dinner, which is followed by a ball on Christmas night.

It is now generally understood that the queen will not attend parliament meets, the house secretary, Sir Matthew White Ridley, who has been considering the numerous documents in the case of Mrs. Florence Maybrick, the American now undergoing a sentence of imprisonment for life, after having been convicted of having poisoned her husband, will announce his decision; but there is little reason to suppose that the case will be reopened. In the meantime the Baroness DeLoques, Mrs. Maybrick's mother, is indignant at the rumors which have been circulated in America referring to the alleged confessions of a released prisoner.

A WILD RIDE. Niagara Falls, Dec. 22.—A run-away freight car with a broken axle clinging to the top wildly shouting for help, rushed across the railway suspension bridge spanning the great gorge of the Niagara tonight. The car was going at the rate of 30 miles an hour when it crossed the neck of all the trestle roads. Luckily there were no trains passing nor were there any on the bridge. The car sped over the bridge and into the Grand Trunk yards on the Canadian side where it ran into a passenger coach and was wrecked. Wm. Hoffman, the brakeman, escaped without serious injury.
